Hon. John S. Rhea is making speeches over the state in opposition to the new constitution.

Col. Barbour has announced that he will not make the race for Governor on the People's party ticket.

This time will come when Kentuckians abroad will be asked if they for the "Purchase" instead of the "Blue Grass."

The Democrats of Barren county have nominated a farmer for the Legislature, and the Alliance has put up a lawyer to beat him. What has Capt. George Mercer to say to this.

Geo. Mercer, Dr. Harrod's manager, is mad, very mad. Indeed, if he could find the man that "writ" that piece from Webster, there might be pistol and a foot race. Keep cool, Brother Geo., it is too hot to get mad and life is too short.

The citizens of Fordville are said to be in high spirits over the discovery of another large coal mine in that vicinity. The new mine is convenient to the railroad, and it is said will furnish enough coal to supply the whole county.

Hon. A. T. Woot, the Republican candidate for Governor, is expatiating pretty exclusively in his speeches on the Dick Tate steal. That matter is about settled. The State will probably get her money, and this old gag will not secure a single vote for the Republican ticket.

Hon. John Young Brown opened the campaign at Dixon, Ky., last week. A big crowd gathered to hear him, and the indications are that the Democrats are falling in line all over the state, and that the party was never in better trim for rolling up a big majority and sweeping every thing before it. Hon. A. T. Woot, the Republican nominee for the same office, is canvassing the state but he is not arousing much enthusiasm.

When Mr. Woot, the Republican nominee for Governor, reached Henderson last week he was met by Hon. John Young Brown, the Democratic nominee for Governor, and taken to the latter's home where he remained as his guest. If Capt. George Mercer sees this he will swear long and ever that both of the old parties are working together, when in fact the action of Mr. Brown was a bit of courtesy that was due his honored opponent.

Myron McKinley, of McKinley tariff fame, was last week nominated by the Republicans for Governor of Ohio. It is possible he may be elected, as Ohio is somewhat of a manufacturing center, and McKinley is regarded as a man of business and sagacity for those situations and as against the laboring classes of people in the country. But of late years the Republicans have not had things their own way in Ohio by large majorities. The Democrats have steadily gained ground and several times elected a Governor.

This Cloverport brick manufacturing company scored its first triumph last week in a contract to furnish 300,000 paving brick to the city of Louisville. There were a number of other strong brick manufacturing establishments competing for the same job, but the Cloverport works got in the lowest bid. Her brick are first class and as good as can be found in the country. When this town goes to stay, and the one that heads her off will know when she does it.

This friends of the new Constitution haven't a walk-over in this county by a large majority; although they claim that they will be easy winners. So far as we have been able to get word, and we have made it a point to ask all the leading men in the different sections where we have been, it is a fact that with the exception of Harrodsburg, a majority both of Democrats and Republicans are against it. The sentiment in this direction is growing too as the matter is being discussed and the people more fully acquainted with its workings.

It is given out that Mr. Harrison will have his own state, Indiana, for the Presidential nomination next year. A delegation of prominent Republicans met at Indianapolis ten days ago and declared a decided preference for Blaine as the Republican standard bearer for President in '92. But Blaine is sick and it is said will not be of much more service in public life. The opposition to Mr. Harrison comes from a lot of selfish, self appointed Republicans who have not heretofore gotten what they asked for of the Administration.

Ex-Senator Joseph E. McDonald, one of Indiana's most beloved statesmen and Democrats, died last Sunday night. He passed peacefully away being fully conscious up to the very last. Just before he died he called his family about him, and calmly, as if the occasion were but of the most ordinary kind, gave directions for his funeral, the disposition of some personal affairs and in the presence of all said, he wished to give testimony to his faith in God's saving grace. He then grasped each by the hand, bade them goodbye saying that he could see them no more, and in a short time passed off. Thus ended the life of a great and good man. He was 72 years old.

This officers of the law are getting after the White Caps, who have been operating a little in this county near Custer, and the Forks of Rough. There would seem to be no occasion for the depredation of such an unlawful element as among the White Caps in this county, and the sooner their operations are put an end to the better. Down at Custer several parties have been arrested, charged with being members of the gang, but it is not at all probable that the proof against them will be sufficient to convict. Those who affiliate with this class of men are generally so averse to allow themselves to be caught. But it is well enough for the officers of the law to keep a close look out, and bring the offenders to justice.

This chapter on "Revenue and Taxation" in the new constitution. (Sections 175-189) provides that all property assessed for taxation shall be assessed at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale. This is good and applies to all property in the State whether owned by natural persons or corporations. It also provides that all taxes shall be uniform upon all property subject to taxation. This is also good. But it is known that section 189 of the same chapter, the last section in the chapter, says, "Nothing in this constitution contained shall be construed so as to prevent the General Assembly from providing by law how outcrops and railroad property shall be assessed and taxes thereon shall be collected."

So the railroads are above constitutional restrictions, and are handed over to the tender mercies of coming legislatures, and a wide opening left for the reduction facilities of the lobby. This vote on the new Constitution. Will some one please inform us how many votes it will take to ratify or reject the new constitution? Is it the mind of the convention that a majority of the votes, or of the whole number of votes in the state, or two thirds or three fifths, or all, are necessary to reject the instrument. They have not said so in the ordinance submitting their work to the people. The ordinance provides that a vote shall be taken and certified, but is silent as to whether it will satisfy the convention as to whether it is rejected. That question is left open in the most unambiguous fashion. Section 177. The new constitution provides that taxes "shall be uniform upon all property subject to taxation within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax."

Then, we suppose, all a Kentucky capitalist has to do to prevent "uniform" taxation on his lands, stocks, and money is to keep them over the river in some vault in Evansville, New Albany or Cincinnati outside of the "territorial limits of the authority levying the tax." More than that, if the streets were full of Cloverport in the matter of subjecting them. Over in Hancock will settle Breckenridge county's hash in the matter, but we guess they will have to be a bit of courtesy that was due his honored opponent.

Messrs. Frank and Tom Bowmer of Madisonville are here, visiting their mother Mrs. B. Bowmer.

Mr. George Jordan was in town one day last week and obtained license to sell beer at the Star Springs.

It would be well enough for the fellows down on the L. H. & W. to keep a sharp eye on timber men.

Mrs. DeJernette's new residence on second street is about completed. It is a handsome two story structure.

Tom Withers took his first lesson in the quarterly court last Monday. He will make a good officer.

Read the advertisement of the big barbecue here on the 4th. It's a fact that Harrodsburg will catch the crowd on that day.

Mr. Allen Guthrie came home sick from Cloverport last week. He has been employed there with Mr. DeHuy for several months.

Public discussion over the new constitution increases as the election approaches. This precinct will give a large vote in its favor.

Visitors to the city have noticed the big improvement made in the looks of the court house surroundings by the addition of the new iron fence.

The city council had better open up some new streets on the east side of town. There are some fine building lots there, and if the streets were up to improvement would go on.

Stephen Seizer has just completed a stone cellar for Mr. J. D. Beeler.

The city council has just ordered that Mr. Seizer's name be placed within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax.

Mr. Lewis Ely, of St. Louis, is in the city visiting his grand nephew, Mr. Daniel. It is the opinion of Mr. Lewis that the rise in gas stock has not been very rapid in Harrodsburg since he dropped in here three years ago.

Mr. Lewis is patently waiting for the city council to order that his name be placed within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax.

Mr. Clait Board spent about five days last week at work on the bridge across the north fork of Rough Creek. This is the wooden bridge the summer for the county under a contract let by the bridge commissioner. The bridge was about to go down and was dangerous to travel. It seems that somebody beat the bridge over a good job there as they agreed to do.

Moorman & Beeler, of Glendora, ran attachments last week on a lot of railroads belonging to the city of Louisville.

Sowers, who has been operating in this locality for some time, in the timber business. Sowers bought up the ties he could get, went to Louisville and sold them at a big profit.

Last Thursday afternoon our quiet little town was greatly excited by the startling report that Hardy Northern, a boy of some fifteen years, had shot and killed himself while out frogging at pond on the farm of Mr. T. J. Jolly near here. He and Arthur Walker were out together; it seems that Hardy hit his gun against his foot and it discharged; the ball entering his heart, he walked on some fifteen or twenty steps, in the direction of Mr. Jolly's house, when he said he was sick and could go no farther, and falling down, laid Arthur to rest; which he did. Mr. Jolly reached him in about ten minutes after the gun was fired, but he was then beyond the reach of mortal aid. This is a sad reminder of the certainty of death, and that we know not when, how, or to whom the Death Angel will call next. Hardy Northern was an orphan, but was the main stay of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Northern, with whom he lived. He was much loved and respected by his friends, and was a very good natured, kind hearted boy, and was a very

Miss Beula Bennett is visiting Miss Jamie Green at her home in Falls of Rough.

Misses Lillie McClinton, Mamie Washington, Mrs. W. Harrison and Mr. Mack Herndon, enjoyed a raspberry tea at Mrs. Ed Bennett's on the evening of the 19th.

An excursion on the L. E. & W. R. R. conducted by Messrs. Mercer and Newman brought an immense crowd and all went home seemingly well pleased with everything.

Col. Al. Allen spent Saturday and Sunday at Irvington. The Col. seems to have discovered the Fountain of Perpetual youth some where in his western travels, he is looking exceedingly well and happy.

Newman & Bro's store was closed last week on account of the death of their father Mr. A. H. Newman, of Louisville. Their many friends in and about Irvington extend their deepest sympathy in this their greatest sorrow.

By special request the concert given by Miss Goodson on the 13th inst. was repeated on the 14th for the benefit of the Methodist church at Webster.

The exercises, with some few additions were the same and were gratifyingly received by the large audience. Miss Goodson deserves very great credit in the management of the affair and her pupils show they have been thoroughly taught.

Miss Franz Goodson assisted her sister, and by her sweet singing won praise from all. Her "Ave Maria" by Luigi was splendidly rendered and earned for her encore run through the house until she graciously came forward and sang "The Broken Pitcher" with such wonderful expression, the applause was all one could desire.

Misses Ellen Munford and Mamie Washington also deserve special mention for their sweet singing, and certainly reflect great credit upon Miss Goodson as an instructor both instrumental and vocal music.

The little toted volubility and the little girls joined in the Chorus and considering their age, it was well kept, perfect time hugging their babies to their hearts as only sweet innocent little girls can.

The vision of white robed angels in Tablets, following with lovely one colored calcium light thrown over them, made one of the most admired features of the evening's entertainment.

The Kindergarten Class was nicely carried out and the closing "Milkmaid Cantata" was received with many plaudits.

The march followed by the drill in which the milkmen carried buckets and made the customary three legs race, was well executed, and did full justice to their captain's excellent training.

Miss Goodson has the thanks of an appreciating community for her efforts to make an entertaining and instructive entertainment for the people of the country and all wish her complete success in the future in whatever she chooses to undertake.

Being a very conscientious teacher, her patrons are to be congratulated upon having had the benefit of her instructions for their children. All are particular anxious to have her for the coming year.

STEPHENSPORT.
Rained very hard all day Saturday.
Miss Lizzie Rickette is the guest of Mrs. J. T. Hanks.

Mr. Scott McCoy went to Louisville Sunday to visit his sister, Mrs. Joe Smith.

Messrs. Carl, Richardson and Arthur Haynes, of Union Star, were in town Sunday.
Miss Alice Hawthorne Mudd, of Louisville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. A. Bradley.

Messrs. J. T. Jenkins, Dr. Goldstein and Jas. H. Lay spent Sunday at the Tar Springs.
The supper given last Wednesday by the ladies of the Baptist church proved quite a success.

Miss Lillie May Ferry, of Cloverport, spent last Wednesday and Thursday with Miss Violet R. McMillan, of Union Star.

Mrs. Henry Hawkins and Miss Mollie Berry, of Louisville, who have been the guests of Mrs. J. C. Bashner, returned home Sunday.

Judge J. W. Jarrett's court was held here Thursday. Attorney John Allen Murray, of Cloverport; Milton Bell, Morris Kerkridge and Wm. Bell, of Hardinsburg, attended. Also D. H. Severs, of Union Star, who is a candidate for Representative, was here with the usual candidate suite.

FREE AS AIR

Is the advice we give our friends, and the people of this vicinity in general: That when they want anything in the way of Clothing or Mens' Furnishings come and interview one of our polite and attentive salesmen, who have orders to "tone down" prices, which you will find as low as you can expect and lower than those concerns which make such big promises in the newspapers—a "big cry" but mighty "little wool." Our stock of hot weather garments is immense and embraces everything you want at prices to suit. Remember, our store closes promptly at 7 o'clock every day except Saturday, when we keep open till 11 p. m. All respectable houses do the same; others should be avoided.

MAYOR PIERCE'S PROCLAMATION

The following is Mayor Pierce's Proclamation to the New City Council—Showing the Constitution of the City's Finance, etc. Her Obligations and Other Matters of Interest.

To THE HONORABLE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CLOVERPORT, KY:
I hereby lay before you a statement of the condition of the city, and also recommend some changes in the management of its affairs, and suggest some plans, which, if carried out, would, I think, be of great advantage to us. We have a debt as follows:

|--------------------|---------|
| Machin Shop Bonds | $2,000 |
| School House Bonds | 2,000 |
| Total Indebtedness | $4,000 |

We have regular obligations to meet annually as follows:

|---|---------|
| Interest on Machine Shop Bonds, payable on June 1st and one-half on Dec. 1st each year. | $400 |
| Interest on School House Bonds payable on Sept. 1st and one-half on Dec. 1st each year. | 400 |
| Salaries Mayor, Marshal and Clerk. | $1,000 |
| Total Regular Obligations | $1,800 |

We have from all sources to pay the above amounts receipts as follows, some items being estimated by last year etc.

|---|---------|
| Taxes as per last assessment book, making the Levy at same rate and allowing a reasonable margin for commissions and delinquency. | $2,000 |
| From White Lumber by City. | 500 |
| From Billiard License by City. | 100 |
| From Sale of Liquor by City. | 100 |
| From Sale of Licenses, etc., by City. | 100 |
| From R. L. Newsom, equally on July 1st and Dec. 1st, 1890. | 100 |
| Balance in Treasury. | 100 |
| Total estimated receipts for next year. | $2,900 |
| Deficiency of obligations to be met during the year. | $1,100 |
| Leaves Balance. | $2,800 |

We have an ordinance making it the duty of the council to apply all funds from License to pay of any note, bond, etc., that the town may have out, or if no indebtedness or none due, to hold the money as a sinking fund for such purposes. I am sorry to say this has not been carried out; if it had our school house debt would have been off our hands, and I suggest that this be carried out hereafter and placed on said bonds as fast as received. This would still leave the sum "by estimate" of $7,170 00 to go to the streets etc. of the city.

Our school bonds matured some time since and we have an act of the Legislature giving us the right to refund said bonds, but I think better to use the method mentioned and pay them off, or if holders insist on their money, to borrow funds and pay them.

I also recommend that our tax book be let to the lowest commission bidder, requiring him to settle at short intervals and in full by September 1892. Our present tax book seems to have caused a great deal of dissatisfaction on account of the way it is let and possibly is not in legal form.

I also recommend that the council erect a shed in rear of jail and supply it with rock so that the prisoners can be worked to advantage. We have frequently had much trouble in this regard to how and when we could work them so as to be a benefit and not an expensive burden to the city.

I also recommend that we endeavor to dispense with the office of city attorney, and when necessary at anytime employ one for the occasion. By so doing we might be able to save some expense, unless, of course, the city is so situated that our city increases in population and becomes more regular.

I would suggest that the opening of the street to the machine line be intended to be as speedily as practicable, as it is already needed very much and might be the cause of placing that property on sale for building lots sooner than it would be otherwise.

According to the foregoing estimates we have the sum of $1,600 00 for streets etc., and I would suggest that the street from Bryant's Church out to limits, and the street from near Corley's out to limits, also both streets from "Red" Newbold's out to John Newton's be graded and gravelled, as we have a good many people out that way and the streets get in very bad condition during the winter.

I further suggest that the council endeavor to have the sidewalks improved in some way before winter, "as we certainly need for our sidewalks" a great many being almost impassable at times.

I ask the committee to take an interest in their various duties, giving prompt attention to all matters referred to them, so that the best measures be recommended and the most good secured for our people generally.

I promise regular attendance at all meetings and ask the same of each member of the council, so we can all work together, push and improve our little city, and in the process of time, we can at the same time carefully guard its financial condition.

Very Respectfully,
R. B. PIERCE,
Mayor of Cloverport.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1891.

Sub-Treasures and Tariff Taxation.

The difference between the sub-treasury scheme and the McKinley bill is not great. Under the sub-treasury scheme there wouldn't be money enough to go round, nor to pay when the notes mature, and the result would be the United States would have a mortgage on every farm and household of wheat to the ruin of the public.

Under the McKinley bill there isn't money enough to satisfy the tribute levied on the public for the protected classes, and the mortgage is by the whole people to them.

Under either system there is loss to people. Both are vicious and neither should be tolerated.—Covington Commonwealth.

A Wonder Worker.

Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and Incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is to-day enjoying good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest Trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at G. W. Short's Drugstore.

Kingdom Stone, the part owner of the Derby winner, "Kingman," refused $25,000 for the horse.

Bridal Etiquette.

There are many little things about weddings that people inquire about, says the Ladies' Home Journal. The bride writes a personal note of thanks for every gift received, whether it be a great one or a little one, and if she cannot do this before the ceremony, she does it after the bride trip.

In the church the bridegroom's family and friends sit at the right of the altar, being on the bridegroom's right hand, while those of the bride are placed on the left, at the bride's left.

The bridegroom does not pay for anything connected with the wedding unless he should choose to send bouquets to the bridesmaids, and, of course, to the bride, and presents and bouquets to his best man and the ushers.

A widow removes her first wedding ring at her second marriage, and does not assume it again. The engagement ring is taken from the third finger of the left hand and worn afterward as a guard to the wedding ring.

It is not considered good taste to cut the finger out of the glove for assuming the ring.

A Child Killed.

He Stood up.

On June 6th.—At a protracted meeting the other day the minister preached a special sermon to the young men, commenting at some length on the character of George Washington, and requested any one present who thought himself Washington's equal to stand up. One young man arose. The pastor asked him upon what did he base his claim. "Sir," said the young man, "I am a railroad agent at Hilton station.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Alliance is at work in Daviess county and the Messenger sizes up the situation correctly in these words: "The ultimate result of all the third party movements that have been started in Kentucky since the war has been a large accession to the Republican party, and it is clearly to be seen that the present effort is driving rapidly in that direction. Its advocates are working themselves into such a fury that they will be ashamed to apply for re-admission to the party of their birth, and there will be nowhere else for them to go except to the Republican party. The Democratic party has a pride in keeping every member possible within it, but beyond that the defection is not going to hurt it. Every man who wants to go, and still the party will have a majority sufficient for all needs."

What Our Country Needs.

Just at this time our country needs a religion that will make a man pay his debts. Shooting don't settle old accounts with God or man. We want to bounce right on a fellow and put him out of the church if he goes to a hall or theatre, but never say a word to the pious scamp who never pays his debts. Preachers and people who never pay their debts are doing the church more harm than dancers or drunkards, for there are more in the church. Readers, we are getting pretty close to you. Then lay down and go to sleep, and you can read on at ease. And don't stop paying because the 'statute of limitation, excuses the open account which you make for bread and meat. You must pay in cash, or God will make you pay it in fire and brimstone. God knows no such excuse as homestead exemption! When you raise that excuse to keep from paying your debts you can stop singing 'when I can read my title clear. You've got none up there.—Methodist Advocate.

Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers never gripe or cause nausea. Mild but sure, assist rather than force. Best little pill for sick headache, chronic constipation, dyspepsia. Sold by G. W. Short.

A CITY LUXURY.

Just as the city looks to the country for most of the luxuries used on its tables, so the country must turn to the city for those conveniences which are justly termed luxuries for the hard-working housewife. City housekeepers have learned to realize that to save time is to lengthen life.

SAPOLIO!

is one of the best known city luxuries and each time a cake is used an hour is saved. On floors, tables and painted work it acts like a charm. For scouring pots, pans and metals it has no equal. IF YOUR STOREKEEPER DOES NOT KEEP IT YOU SHOULD INSIST UPON HIS DOING SO, as it always gives satisfaction and its immense sale all over the United States makes it an almost necessary article to any well-supplied store. Everything shines after its use, and even the children delight in using it in their attempts to help around the house.
